PROXY STATEMENT

THIS PROXY STATEMENT, which is first being mailed to shareholders on or about _____, 1998, is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Nava Leisure USA, Inc. (the "Company") to be voted at the Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on November 9, 1998, at 10:00 a.m. local time, at _____ and at any adjournments or postponements thereof.

At the Special Meeting, the holders of shares of common stock, par value $.0005 per share (the "Common Stock"), of the Company will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal for the Company to acquire the business of Senesco, LLC, a New Jersey Limited Liability Company ("Senesco"), through the merger (the "Merger") of Senesco into Nava Leisure Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company established for the purpose of effecting the acquisition of Senesco ("Acquisition Corp."). Approval by the shareholders of the Company is a condition to the consummation of the Merger. In connection with the Merger, the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock will be reverse-split, with each shareholder of the Company receiving one (1) share of Common Stock for every three (3) shares of Common Stock owned of record as of the Record Date (the "Reverse Split"). In exchange for the agreement of the members of Senesco to exchange all the issued and outstanding interests of Senesco, the members of Senesco will receive One Million Seven Hundred Thousand (1,700,000) shares of the Company's authorized but unissued Common Stock on a post-split basis.

Upon consummation of the Merger, (1) Acquisition Corp. will succeed to the business of Senesco, (2) Acquisition Corp. will change its name to "Senesco, Inc.", (3) the Company will change its name to "Senesco Technologies, Inc." or a similar name approved by the shareholders of the Company, (4) the Company will change its state of incorporation to Delaware and (5) the existing Directors of the Company will resign and be replaced by the Directors the shareholders of the Company have elected.

In connection with the financing of the Merger and the ongoing financing of the business of Senesco, Senesco has arranged for various financing arrangements that will be entered into by Senesco and the Company, including a "bridge" financing by the Company of up to $500,000 of short-term notes (the "Notes") which will bear interest at the rate not to exceed prime plus 2%. Upon consummation of the Merger, the Notes will become a liability of the Company.

The voting securities of the Company consist of Fifty Million (50,000,000) authorized shares of common stock, par value $.0005 per share ("Common Stock"), of which 3,000,025 shares were issued and outstanding at the close of business on June 30, 1998 and 1,000,008 which will be outstanding after the Reverse Split. The Company currently has no other class of voting security outstanding. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on _____, 1998, the record date for the Special Meeting (the "Record Date"), will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting.

Upon the consummation of the Merger, 1,700,000 shares of Common Stock will be issued to the members of Senesco, resulting in 2,700,008 shares of Common Stock outstanding. Accordingly, at such time, the current shareholders of the Company will own approximately 37% of the issued and outstanding Common Stock. The ownership of the Company's current shareholders would be further diluted upon the issuance of shares of Common Stock pursuant to the consummation of a public or private offering.

Holders of record of Common Stock on the Record Date are entitled to one vote per share exercisable in person or by proxy. The presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Assuming a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding present in person or represented by proxy is required for approval of the proposals to be voted upon at the Meeting. Shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights.

All proxies received pursuant to this solicitation will be voted at the Meeting and at any adjournments thereof as indicated in the Proxy. If the Proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares it represents will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the instruction noted thereon. If no instructions are given, the Proxy will be voted FOR all of the proposals presented and FOR the election of nominees for directors. Any shareholder executing the attached proxy card (the "Proxy") may revoke it at any time before it is voted by submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company, or by attending the Special Meeting of Shareholders and orally withdrawing the Proxy.

Management knows of no other matter to be brought before the Special Meeting of Shareholders not referred to in this Proxy Statement. If, however, other matters properly come before the Meeting, Proxies will be voted in accordance with the judgment of the person voting such Proxies, unless the Proxy indicates otherwise.

This Proxy Statement contains summaries of the terms and conditions of certain agreements relating to the Merger, the financing arrangements related to the Merger and the expansion of the business of Senesco. Reference is made to the specific terms of such agreements. Copies of the following documents will be available for inspection at the Special Meeting:

1. Merger Agreement and Plan of Merger dated October 9, 1998 among the Company, Acquisition Corp. and Senesco relating to the Merger.
2. Letter of Intent dated October 2, 1998 between the Company and Senesco.

NO PERSON HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION OR TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT CONTAINED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT AND, IF GIVEN OR MADE, SUCH INFORMATION OR REPRESENTATIONS MUST NOT BE RELIED UPON AS HAVING BEEN AUTHORIZED BY THE COMPANY. NO STATEMENT OF FACT HEREIN SHALL BE DEEMED TO CREATE ANY IMPLICATION THAT SUCH FACTS HAVE NOT CHANGED SINCE THE DATE HEREOF.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN AT THE MEETING

PROPOSAL ONE

MERGER OF SENESCO, LLC INTO ACQUISITION CORP.

THE MERGER

The Board of Directors has proposed that the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Nava Leisure Acquisition Corp. ("Acquisition Corp."), enter into a Merger Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") whereby Senesco, LLC, New Jersey Limited Liability Company ("Senesco") with its principal offices at 11 Chambers Street, Princeton, New Jersey 08542, (609) 252-0680, will merge into Acquisition Corp., with Acquisition Corp. as the surviving entity (the "Merger"). Acquisition Corp. shall change its name to Senesco, Inc. and shall remain a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. As consideration for the Merger, the Company will issue 1,700,000 shares of its authorized but previously unissued Common Stock (the "Merger Shares") to the current members of Senesco. All of the Merger Shares to be issued under the Agreement shall be issued pursuant to the exemptions from registration contained in Sections 4(2), 4(6) of, and/or Regulation D under, the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"). Accordingly, all such shares of Common Stock will be "restricted securities" pursuant to Rule 144 under the Act. Following the closing of the Agreement, the Company, through Acquisition Corp., will operate the current businesses of Senesco.

Copies of the letter of intent between Senesco and the Company dated October 2, 1998 (the "Letter of Intent" with respect to the Merger, the Agreement and the Senesco business plan will be available at the Meeting.

CAPITALIZATION

The Company's authorized capital consists of 50,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $.0005 par value per share and 5,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $.001 par value per share. The Board of Directors has the authority to issue the Preferred Stock in one or more series, and to determine by resolution, the designations, relative rights and preference of any series.

There are currently 3,000,025 shares of the Company's Common Stock issued and outstanding. In connection with the Merger, the Company will give effect to the Reverse Split pursuant to which each shareholder of record of the Company as of the Record Date will receive one (1) share for every three (3) shares of Common Stock then held of record. Accordingly, after the Reverse Split, there will be 1,000,008 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. (See "Proposal 2 - Reverse Stock Split"). There are no shares of Preferred Stock issued and outstanding.

Upon the closing of the Merger, the Company will (i) issue 1,700,000 shares of Common Stock to the members of Senesco, and (ii) obtain ($500,000) in bridge financing of notes bearing interest at a rate of prime plus 2%, to support expansion of its operations in the interim period prior to the completion of a public or private offering. Accordingly, upon consummation of the Merger, there will be a total of 2,700,008 shares issued and outstanding and the current shareholders of the Company will own approximately 37% of the then issued and outstanding Common Stock.

BUSINESS OF SENESCO, LLC

Senesco, LLC was formed in June 1998 to commercially exploit potentially significant technology in connection with the identification and characterization of a gene (a lipase gene) which controls the aging (senescence) of plants (flowers, fruits and vegetables).

Senesco has formulated a Phase One research and development plan to attempt to further characterize the gene in flowers, fruits and vegetables. Senescence in plant tissues is the natural aging of these tissues. Loss of cellular membrane integrity attributable to lipase gene activity is an early event during the senescence of all plant tissues that prompts the deterioration of fresh flowers, fruits and vegetables. This loss of integrity is attributable to the formation of lipid metabolites in membrane bilayers that "phase-separate" and cause the membranes to become "leaky". A decline in cell function ensues leading to deterioration and eventual death (spoilage of the tissue).

Presently, the technology utilized for controlling senescence and increasing the shelf life of flowers, fruits and vegetables relies on reducing ethylene biosynthesis, and hence only has application to a limited number of plants that are ethylene-sensitive. Senesco is researching a plan to avoid this limitation since Senesco believes that the lipase gene is present in all plants.

Currently, Senesco's research and development plan focuses on gene characterization of carnation for flowers, tomato for fruits, and Arabidopsis thaliana for (leafy) vegetables. In addition, Senesco expects to enter into a joint venture with Rahan Meristem, an Israeli company. The joint venture is expected to be based on the contribution by Senesco of its gene technology and Rahan Meristem's know-how in banana fruit. Rahan Meristem is in the business of worldwide export marketing in genetically engineered banana plants.

The inventor of Senesco's technology is John E. Thompson, Ph.D., who is the Dean of Science at the University of Waterloo in Waterloo, Ontario. Senesco is currently negotiating a three-year research and development agreement with Dr. Thompson and the University of Waterloo.

Senesco filed a patent application on June 26, 1998 to protect the above-described developments/inventions.

SUMMARY OF TERMS OF MERGER

The following summary of certain information contained in this Proxy Statement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by more detailed information contained in the Merger Agreement and Plan of Merger between the Company, Acquisition Corp. and Senesco, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Merger Agreement"), by references to Exhibit A hereto.

The Company proposes to have Senesco merge with and into Acquisition Corp., which would result in Acquisition Corp. being the surviving entity. Acquisition Corp. would continue the business of Senesco upon completion of the Merger.

The closing (the "Closing") of the transactions contemplated under the Merger Agreement is presently scheduled to be held no later than five (5) business days after the Special Meeting of Shareholders.

ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

The Company shall issue to the members of Senesco, an aggregate of 1,700,000 Merger Shares of the authorized but previously unissued common stock, $.0005 par value per share, of the Company, on a post-split pro rata basis, as consideration for the members of Senesco agreeing to surrender their ownership interests in Senesco. The Merger will alter the percentage interest in the Company of any shareholder, due to the Company's issuance of an aggregate of 1,700,000 Merger Shares to the members of Senesco.

The Merger Shares are being issued pursuant to Sections 4(2) and 4(6) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act") and/or Regulation D promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission").

JOINT REASONS FOR THE MERGER

The Boards of Directors of the Company and Senesco believe that the Merger benefits both companies. The Company's Board and Senesco's Board have identified a number of potential benefits of the Merger, including the following:

- (1) Allow the Company to fulfill its business purpose of acquiring an operating company or a company with a business plan;
- (2) Allow Senesco to obtain a larger shareholder base, to qualify for a listing on a stock exchange;
- (3) Allow Senesco to gain the interest of investment bankers and brokerage firms who will only raise capital for a public company; and
- (4) Allow Senesco to utilize the public markets to raise money for research and development.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion summarizes the material Federal income tax consequences of the Merger to holders of the Company under the Code, but does not deal with all tax consequences of the Merger that may be relevant to the Company's stockholders in light of their particular circumstances, such as the tax consequences to the Company's stockholders who do not hold their Common Stock as a capital asset, foreign persons, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, securities dealers, broker-dealers or persons who acquired their shares in compensatory transactions. Furthermore, no foreign, state or local tax considerations are addressed herein.

THIS SUMMARY SHOULD NOT BE REGARDED AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO A STOCKHOLDER. EACH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD CONSULT A TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO SUCH STOCKHOLDER'S OWN PARTICULAR SITUATION.

The Merger will constitute a stock for stock exchange within the meaning of Section 351 of the Code.

Based on the Merger qualifying as a stock for stock exchange, the following Federal income tax consequences will occur;

- (a) the Senesco members will realize ordinary income, capital gains or both, based upon the difference in the value of the Senesco interests and the Merger Shares and will be taxed accordingly;
- (b) no gain or loss will be recognized by holders of the Company's Common Stock upon the exchange of the Senesco interests for shares of the Company's Merger Shares;
- (c) the holding period of the shares of the Merger Shares received by a Senesco member in the Merger will not include the holding period of the interests of Senesco surrendered in exchange therefor.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTING

The reorganization will be accounted for as a recapitalization of Senesco because the members of Senesco will control the Company after the Merger. Therefore, Senesco will be treated as the acquiring entity. Accordingly, there will be no adjustment to the carrying value of the assets or liabilities of the Company. The Company is the acquiring entity for legal purposes and Senesco is the surviving entity for accounting purposes

Each Senesco member should consult a tax advisor as to the particular consequences of the Merger that may apply to such member, including the application of state, local, foreign and other Federal tax laws.

The Company has been advised that shareholders owning an aggregate of 1,482,020 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, representing 49.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock will vote in favor of the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT, PLAN OF MERGER, AND TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREIN AND RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO ENTER INTO THE ABOVE DESCRIBED MERGER AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER WITH SENESCO, AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREIN.

PROPOSAL 2

REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

As a condition to the Closing, and immediately prior thereto, there will be a reverse stock split of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock (the "Reverse Stock Split") pursuant to which each three (3) outstanding shares of Common Stock will be automatically converted into one (1) share of Common Stock. The Company currently has 3,000,025 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. After giving effect to the Reverse Stock Split, the Company will have 1,000,008 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. The Reverse Stock Split will not change the par value of any outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock. The Company's unissued authorized shares of Common will increase from 46,999,975 to 48,999,992.

REASONS FOR THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

The reasons for the Reverse Stock Split are as follows:

- (1) to reduce the market capitalization of the Company to more accurately reflect the real value of the shares;
- (2) to reduce the number of shares outstanding in order to be able to issue more shares to attract respected management through the issuance of shares including but not limited to the proposed stock option plan; and
- (3) to reduce the size of the public float to discourage short selling and encourage market makers to make a market in the common stock.

In the event that as a result of the Reverse Stock Split, a shareholder owns a fractional share, the Company will issue to such shareholder an additional full share of Common Stock.

The Company has been advised that shareholders owning an aggregate of 1,482,020 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, representing 49.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock will vote in favor of the Reverse Stock Split.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT AND RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDER VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL ON THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT.

PROPOSAL 3

AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors has proposed that the Company amend its Articles of Incorporation in order to change its corporate name to "Senesco Technologies, Inc.", or to a similar name to be approved by the shareholders at the Meeting. Management believes that the change of corporate name will better reflect the business direction of the Company as it succeeds to the business of Senesco.

The Company has been advised that shareholders owning an aggregate of 1,482,020 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, representing 49.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock will vote in favor of the Amendment of Articles of Incorporation.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL

TO AMEND THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE COMPANY TO CHANGE THE CORPORATE NAME.

PROPOSAL 4

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS AND INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

In connection with the Merger, the number of members of the Board of Directors will be increased from three (3) persons to five (5) persons. The current directors of the Company have agreed to resign and the following three (3) persons, two (2) of whom have been nominated by the current management of Senesco and one (1) of whom has been nominated by the Board of Directors of the Company, have been nominated for election at the Special Meeting of Shareholders to serve as directors of the Company until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors have been elected and qualified. Although management does not anticipate that any of the persons named below will be unable or unwilling to stand for election, in the event of such an occurrence, Proxies may be voted for a substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors. The two (2) vacancies in the Board of Directors will be filled by the majority vote of the three (3) directors elected at the Special Meeting. Shareholders who wish to make their own nominations for the Board of Directors may do so by indicating such on their Proxy or by making an oral nomination at the Meeting. A vote FOR the Board of Directors will also be a vote FOR increasing the number of members of the Board of Directors.

The nominees for directors and biographical information regarding each are as follows:

Management believes that the change in the state of incorporation will better suit the corporate agenda and business direction of the Company. However, if such action will in any way adversely affect the Company's status as a public company, as determined by the Company's legal counsel, then such action will not be taken and the shareholders will be informed.

The Company has been advised that shareholders owning an aggregate of 1,482,020 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, representing 49.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock will vote in favor of the reincorporation in the State of Delaware.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL

TO CHANGE THE STATE OF INCORPORATION OF THE COMPANY SUBJECT TO THE ADVICE OF COUNSEL.

PROPOSAL 8

RESERVATION OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND
APPROVE FORM OF STOCK OPTION PLAN

The Board of Directors has proposed that 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock be reserved for issuance pursuant to one or more stock option plans to be created and approved by the Board of Directors in substantially the form attached as Exhibit A to the Merger Agreement (the "Plan").

Under the Plan, the Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of options or stock purchase rights to purchase the common stock of the Company. The reasons for adopting the Plan are to enable Nava Leisure to attract and retain the best available personnel for positions of substantial responsibility, to provide additional incentive to employees, directors and consultants of the Company and its subsidiary and to promote the success of the Company's business.

The material features of plans adopted in accordance with the Plan are as follows:

1. Officers, directors, consultants and other employees of the Company and the Company's subsidiary are potentially eligible to receive options or stock purchase rights.

(a) Upon the Merger, the Company, including its subsidiary, will employ three (3) employees who also comprise all of the officers of the Company, will have three (3) directors and will have no consultants. The Company anticipates hiring additional employees and consultants as needed.

2. Incentive Stock Options may be granted only to employees of the Company or its subsidiaries. Nonstatutory Stock Options may be granted to employees and consultants.

3. The Company's Board of Directors or a committee appointed by the Board shall administer all plans enacted in accordance with the Plan.

4. The per share exercise price for shares to be issued pursuant to exercise of an option shall be determined by the Board of Directors subject to the following guidelines:

(i) In the case of an Incentive Stock Option

(a) granted to an employee who, at the time of the grant of such incentive stock option, owns stock representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company, the per share exercise price shall be no less than 110% of the fair market value per share on the date of grant.

(b) granted to any other employee, the per share price shall be no less than 100% of the fair market grant on the date of grant.

(ii) In the case of a Nonstatutory Stock Option

(a) granted to a person who, at the time of the grant of such incentive stock option, owns stock representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company, the per share exercise price shall be no less than 110% of the fair market value per share on the date of grant.

(b) granted to any other person, the per share price shall be no less than 85% of the fair market value on the date of grant.

(iii) Stock Purchase Rights, if authorized and implemented pursuant to a Restricted Stock Purchase Agreement approved by the Board of Directors, may be issued either alone or in conjunction with other plans adopted under the Plan. The Board shall advise each offeree of Stock Purchase Rights in writing of the terms, conditions and restrictions related to the offer, including the number of shares the offeree is entitled to purchase, the price to be paid (which price shall not be less than 50% of the fair market value of the shares as of the date of the offer), and the time within such person must accept the offer which shall not exceed thirty (30) days from the date upon which the determination was made to grant the Stock Purchase Right.

5. In the event of an option holder's termination of employee, officer, director, or consultant status with the Company or its subsidiaries, such holder may exercise his option to the extent he was entitled to exercise it on the date of termination, but only within ninety (90) days (or such other period of time as is determined by the Board, with such determination in the case of an Incentive Stock Option being made at the time of grant of the option and not exceeding ninety (90) days) after the date of termination (but in no event later than the termination date set forth in the option agreement governing the option).

6. Continuance of the Plan shall be subject to approval by the stockholders of the Company within twelve (12) months before or after the date the Plan is adopted.

The Company currently does not have any stock option plans under which officers, directors or employees of the Company may participate.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE TRANSACTIONS

No officer or director of the Company serves as an officer or director of Senesco or owns any ownership or membership interest of Senesco. None of the officers, directors or principal shareholders of the Company have any substantial interests in the proposals discussed herein to be voted upon at the Special Meeting.

The Company has been advised that shareholders owning an aggregate of 1,482,020 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, representing 49.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock will vote in favor of the proposal to reserve shares of Common Stock and to approve the form of stock option plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE RESERVATION OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND FOR THE FORM OF STOCK OPTION PLAN.

PROPOSAL 9

RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Board of Directors has arranged for Goldstein Golub Kessler & Co., P.C. to be its auditors for the 1999 fiscal year ending June 30, subject to the consummation of the Merger and the ratification of the appointment by the Company's stockholders. The Company does not know if a representative of Goldstein Golub Kessler & Co., P.C. will attend the Special Meeting.

The Company has been advised that shareholders owning an aggregate of 1,482,020 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, representing 49.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock will vote in favor of the ratification of Goldstein Kessler & Co., P.C., as the Company's auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1999.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF GOLDSTEIN GOLUB KESSLER & CO., P.C. AS
THE COMPANY'S AUDITORS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1999.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

Holders of shares of the Company's Common Stock who follow the procedures set forth in ID State Sections 30-1-1301 to 30-1-1331, inclusive, of the Idaho Corporation Law, copies of which are annexed hereto as Exhibit C and by this reference made a part hereof, may be entitled to dissent from the consummation of the Merger, and to obtain payment for their shares of the Company's Common Stock.

The following summary of ID Statute Sections 30-1-1301 to 30-1-1331 is NOT intended to be a complete statement of the provisions of such Sections and is qualified in its entirety by the referenced Exhibit A annexed hereto.

ANY SHAREHOLDER WHO WISHES TO DISSENT AND OBTAIN PAYMENT FOR THEIR SHARES SHALL REFRAIN FROM VOTING THEIR SHARES IN APPROVAL OF THE MOTION SUBMITTED TO THE VOTE AND, BEFORE THE VOTE IS TAKEN, CAUSE THE COMPANY TO RECEIVE WRITTEN NOTICE OF THE SHAREHOLDER'S INTENTION TO DEMAND PAYMENT FOR THE SHAREHOLDER'S SHARES IF THE PROPOSED CORPORATE ACTION IS TAKEN.

If the Merger is approved at the Special Meeting, shareholders previously indicating their intention to dissent, as set forth above, are entitled to written notice from the Company no later than 10 days after the consummation of the Merger stating (1) where the shareholder's demand for payment and the certificates representing the dissenting shares must be sent, (2) informing holders of non-certificated shares as to the restrictions on the shares after demand for payment is received, (3) supplying a form for demanding payment including specified information, (4) setting a date by which demand for payment must be received, which date must be not less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the notice is delivered and (5) including a copy of ID Statute Sections 30-1-1301 to 30-1-1331, inclusive.

Upon receipt of the Company's notice, each dissenting shareholder must confirm their intent to receive payment for their shares by sending a demand for payment to the Company and must certify that he or she obtained beneficial ownership of the shares in question before the date of the first announcement of the transactions described in the Company's dissenters' notice. The dissenting shareholder must also deposit his or her shares with the Company pending payment. Failure of the shareholder to demand payment or deposit shares will result in the loss of dissenter's rights.

The Company must, as soon as the Merger is consummated or upon receipt of a written demand for payment, pay each dissenting shareholder who has complied with the certification and deposit requirements. Such payment is to be in an amount equal to the fair value of the shares so surrendered, plus accrued interest. Such payment must be accompanied by enumerated financial statements of the Company, an explanation of how interest was calculated, a statement of the dissenter's right to payment and a copy of ID Statute Section 30-1-1302 to 30-1-1331, inclusive.

Each dissenting shareholder may dispute the Company's calculation of the fair value of the shares within thirty (30) days of the Company's offer. If the shareholder and the Company cannot agree on fair value, the Company may, within 60 days of receipt of a demand for payment specifying a value other than that determined by the Company, submit the issue for a judicial appraisal. Fees and costs of such a proceeding may be assessed by the court against such parties and in such amounts as it finds equitable under the circumstances.

The dissenters' rights detailed in ID Statute Section 30-1-1302 to 30-1-1331, inclusive, are the sole rights of dissenting shareholders.

The Board of Directors of the Company believes that, as the Company is currently carrying on no business and has no assets, and the financing transactions described in this Proxy Statement are all conditioned upon the consummation of the Merger and the acquisition of the business of Senesco, that the value of any dissenters' rights will be minimal.

DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Company was organized on April 1, 1964 under the laws of the State of Idaho as Felton Products, Inc., having the stated purpose of engaging in various investment activities, without limitation of its general corporate powers to engage in any lawful activities. The Company engaged in limited investment and business development operations and, from the time of its inception, the Company has underwent several name changes and business changes.

On September 1, 1987, the Company changed its name to Ink & Imagers, Inc. There is no record of any business operations during the period the Company was known as Ink & Imagers, Inc. On November 16, 1988, the Company's name was changed to its present form, Nava Leisure USA, Inc. in anticipation of the acquisition of an operating business incorporated in Delaware with a similar name, Nava Leisure USA, Inc., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter, Nava (Delaware)). The acquisition and related stock exchange agreement was never completed, and all rights and interest in the Company and the Nava (Delaware) subsidiary were confirmed to the Company by an Order Pursuant to Stipulation of the District Court for Idaho, Sixth Judicial District, on December 11, 1995.

The acquisition agreement was rescinded and voided by court order dated December 11, 1995. Furthermore, any exchanges of stock related thereto were canceled and made null and void by the same court order, and all certificates related thereto were returned to the Company. On December 16, 1995, a special meeting of the board of directors was held for the purpose of canceling all shares of common and preferred stock issued by the Company pursuant to the rescinded Nava (Delaware) transaction. The court order, stipulation, and the board action terminated all further issues in dispute regarding the litigation over the Nava (Delaware) transaction. A monetary judgment in the amount of $40,440.04 associated with that proceeding in favor of the Company is considered uncollectible and subject to a 100% valuation allowance in the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1998, and is not a material asset to the Company. Other than the rescinded acquisition transaction and related litigation regarding Nava (Delaware), the Company has remained inactive since before 1988, until just recently.

The present promoters of the Company obtained control between 1987 and 1988 by acquiring then-controlling shareholders' interest in the then-defunct and inactive Felton Products, Inc., for purposes of the business acquisition which failed in 1988. The promoters are the President of the Company, J. Rockwell Smith, and three major shareholders, namely Edward F. Cowle, H.D. Williams and David Williams. On November 1, 1996, the directors determined that the Company should become active in seeking potential operating businesses and business opportunities with the intent to acquire or merge with such businesses. The Company then began to consider and investigate potential business opportunities. The Company is considered a development stage company and, due to its status as a shell corporation, its principal business purpose is to locate and consummate a merger or acquisition with a private entity.

The Company voluntarily filed a registration statement on Form 10-SB on March 27, 1997 (as amended on July 10, 1997) in order to make information concerning itself more readily available to the public. As a result of filing its registration statement, the Company is obligated to file with the Commission certain interim and periodic reports including an annual report containing audited financial statements. The Company intends to continue to voluntarily file these periodic reports under the Exchange Act even if its obligation to file such reports is suspended under applicable provisions of the Exchange Act. Any person reviewing this information is advised to refer to the Company's Form 10-SB for additional information.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTIES

The Company's administrative offices are located at 253 Ontario No. 1, P.O. Box 3303, Park City, Utah, 84060, which are the offices of its president, J. Rockwell Smith. Acquisition Corp.'s administrative offices are also located at the offices of J. Rockwell Smith. Mr. Smith allows the Company to utilize these facilities without charge. The Company does not own or control any material property.

The Company formed Nava Leisure Acquisition Corp. ("Acquisition Corp.") in New Jersey on October 9, 1998. Acquisition Corp. was formed as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company for the sole purpose of effecting the acquisition of Senesco. Acquisition Corp. has no assets or liabilities, and has never engaged in any business.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

No legal proceedings are pending at this time against the Company.

There are no material proceedings to which any director, officer or affiliate of the Company, any owner of record or affiliate of the Company, any owner of record or beneficially of more than five percent (5%) of the Company's common stock or shareholder is a party adverse to the Company or has a material interest adverse to the Company.

No matters were submitted to a vote of shareholders of the Company during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1998, nor since that time until the date of this Proxy Statement.

MARKET FOR COMMON EQUITY AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

The Company is not aware of quotations for its common stock, now or any time within the past nine years. The Company's shares are eligible to be quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol "NAVL". Inclusion on the OTC Bulletin Board, permits price quotations for the Company's shares to be published by such service. The Company is not aware of any established trading market for its common stock nor is there any record of any reported trades in the public market in recent years. The Company's common stock has not traded in a public market since 1988. Since its inception, the Company has not paid any dividends on its Common Stock, and the Company does not anticipate that it will pay dividends in the foreseeable future. At October 8, 1998, the Company had 387 shareholders.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

The Company is considered a development stage company with no assets or capital and with no operations or income since approximately 1988. The costs and expenses associated with the preparation and filing of this registration statement and other operations of the Company have been paid for by its shareholders of the Company, specifically H.D. Williams. It is anticipated that the Company will require only nominal capital to maintain the corporate viability of the Company and necessary funds will most likely be provided by the Company's existing shareholders or its officers and directors in the immediate future.

In the opinion of management, inflation has not and will not have a material effect on the operations of the Company until such time as the Company successfully completes the Merger.

CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

The Company has had no disagreements with its certified public accountants with respect to accounting practices or procedures or financial disclosure.

Following the Merger, the Company will engage Goldstein Golub & Kessler as its auditors (See "Proposal 9 - Ratification of Appointment of Auditors").

(a) Procedure.

(i) Administration With Respect to Directors and Officers.

With respect to grants of Options or stock purchase rights to Employees who are also officers or directors of the Company, the Plan shall be administered by (A) the Board, if the Board may administer the Plan in compliance with Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act or any successor thereto ("Rule 16b-3") with respect to a plan intended to allow transactions between the Company and the Optionee to be exempt for Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, or (B) a Committee designated by the Board to administer the Plan, which Committee shall be constituted in such a manner as to permit the Plan to comply with Rule 16b-3 with respect to a plan intended to allow transactions between the Company and the Optionee to be exempt for Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act. Once appointed, such Committee shall continue to serve in its designated capacity until otherwise directed by the Board. From time to time the Board may increase the size of the Committee and appoint additional members thereof, remove members (with or without cause) and appoint new members in substitution therefor, fill vacancies, however caused, and remove all members of the Committee and thereafter directly administer the Plan, all to the extent permitted by Rule 16b-3 with respect to a plan intended to qualify thereunder as a discretionary plan.

(ii) Multiple Administrative Bodies. If permitted by Rule 16b-

3, the Plan may be administered by different bodies with respect to directors, non-director officers and Employees who are neither directors nor officers.

(iii) Administration With Respect to Consultants and Other

Employees. With respect to grants of Options or stock purchase rights to Employees who are neither directors nor officers of the Company or to Consultants, the Plan shall be administered by

(A) the Board, if the Board may administer the Plan in compliance with Rule 16b-3, or (B) a Committee designated by the Board, which Committee shall be constituted in such a manner as to satisfy the legal requirements relating to the administration of incentive stock option plans, if any, of Idaho corporate law and applicable securities laws and of the Code (the "Applicable Laws"). Once appointed, such Committee shall continue to serve in its designated capacity until otherwise directed by the Board. From time to time the Board may increase the size of the Committee and appoint additional members thereof, remove members (with or without cause) and appoint new members in substitution therefor, fill vacancies, however caused, and remove all members of the Committee and thereafter directly administer the Plan, all to the extent permitted by the Applicable Laws.

(b) Powers of the Administrator. Subject to the provisions of the ----- Plan and in the case of a Committee, the specific duties delegated by the Board to such Committee, the Administrator shall have the authority, in its discretion:

- (i) to determine the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock, in accordance with Section 2(k) of the Plan;
- (ii) to select the officers, Consultants and Employees to whom Options and stock purchase rights may from time to time be granted hereunder;
- (iii) to determine whether and to what extent Options and stock purchase rights or any combination thereof, are granted hereunder;
- (iv) to determine the number of shares of Common Stock to be covered by each such award granted hereunder;
- (v) to approve forms of agreement for use under the Plan;
- (vi) to determine the terms and conditions, not inconsistent with the terms of the Plan, of any award granted hereunder (including, but not limited to, the share price and any restriction or limitation or waiver of forfeiture restrictions regarding any Option or other award and/or the shares of Common Stock relating thereto, based in each case on such factors as the Administrator shall determine, in its sole discretion);
- (vii) to determine whether and under what circumstances an Option may be settled in cash under subsection 9(f) instead of Common Stock;
- (viii) to determine whether, to what extent and under what circumstances Common Stock and other amounts payable with respect to an award under this Plan shall be deferred either automatically or at the election of the participant (including providing for and determining the amount, if any, of any deemed earnings on any deferred amount during any deferral period);

(ix) to reduce the exercise price of any Option to the then current Fair Market Value if the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock covered by such Option shall have declined since the date the Option was granted; and

(x) to determine the terms and restrictions applicable to stock purchase rights and the Restricted Stock purchased by exercising such stock purchase rights.

(c) Effect of Committee's Decision. All decisions, determinations and interpretations of the Administrator shall be final and binding on all Optionees and any other holders of any Options.

5. Eligibility.

(a) Nonstatutory Stock Options may be granted to Employees and Consultants. Incentive Stock Options may be granted only to Employees. An Employee or Consultant who has been granted an Option may, if he is otherwise eligible, be granted an additional Option or Options.

(b) Each Option shall be designated in the written option agreement as either an Incentive Stock Option or a Nonstatutory Stock Option. However, notwithstanding such designations, to the extent that the aggregate Fair Market Value of the Shares with respect to which Options designated as Incentive Stock Options are exercisable for the first time by any optionee during any calendar year (under all plans of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary) exceeds $100,000, such excess Options shall be treated as Nonstatutory Stock Options.

(c) For purposes of Section 5(b), Incentive Stock Options shall be taken into account in the order in which they were granted, and the Fair Market Value of the Shares shall be determined as of the time the Option with respect to such Shares is granted.

(d) The Plan shall not confer upon any Optionee any right with respect to continuation of employment or consulting relationship with the Company, nor shall it interfere in any way with his right or the Company's right to terminate his employment or consulting relationship at any time, with or without cause.

6. Term of Plan. The Plan shall become effective upon the earlier to occur of its adoption by the Board of Directors or its approval by the shareholders of the Company as described in Section 19 of the Plan. It shall continue in effect for a term of ten (10) years unless sooner terminated under Section 15 of the Plan.

7. Term of Option. The term of each Option shall be the term stated in the Option Agreement; provided, however, that in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, the term shall be no more than ten (10) years from the date of grant thereof or such shorter term as may be provided in the Option Agreement. However, in the case of an Option granted to an Optionee who, at the time the Option is granted, owns stock representing more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary, the term of the Option shall be five (5) years from the date of grant thereof or such shorter term as may be provided in the Option Agreement.

8. Option Exercise Price and Consideration.

(a) The per share exercise price for the Shares to be issued pursuant to exercise of an Option shall be such price as is determined by the Board, but shall be subject to the following:

(i) In the case of an Incentive Stock Option

(A) granted to an Employee who, at the time of the grant of such Incentive Stock Option, owns stock representing more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary, the per Share exercise price shall be no less than 110% of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant.

(B) granted to any Employee, the per Share exercise price shall be no less than 100% of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant.

(ii) In the case of a Nonstatutory Stock Option

(A) granted to a person who, at the time of the grant of such Option, owns stock representing more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary, the per Share exercise price shall be no less than 110% of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of the grant.

(B) granted to any person, the per Share exercise price shall be no less than 85% of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of grant.

(b) The consideration to be paid for the Shares to be issued upon exercise of an Option, including the method of payment, shall be determined by the Administrator (and, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, shall be determined at the time of grant) and may consist entirely of (1) cash, (2) check, (3) promissory note, (4) other Shares which (x) in the case of Shares acquired upon exercise of an Option either have been owned by the Optionee for more than six months on the date of surrender or were not acquired, directly or indirectly, from the Company, and (y) have a Fair Market Value on the date of surrender equal to the aggregate exercise price of the Shares as to which said Option shall be exercised, (5) authorization from the Company to retain from the total number of Shares as to which the Option is exercised that number of Shares having a Fair Market Value on the date of exercise equal to the exercise price for the total number of Shares as to which the option is exercised, (6) delivery of a properly executed exercise notice together with irrevocable instructions to a broker to promptly deliver to the Company the amount of sale or loan proceeds required to pay the exercise price, (7) by delivering an irrevocable subscription agreement for the Shares which irrevocably obligates the option holder to take and pay for the Shares not more than twelve months after the date of delivery of the subscription agreement, (8) any combination of the foregoing methods of payment, or (9) such other consideration and method of payment for the issuance of Shares to the extent permitted under Applicable Laws. In making its determination as to the type of consideration to accept, the Administrator shall consider if acceptance of such consideration may be reasonably expected to benefit the Company.

9. Exercise of Option.

(a) Procedure for Exercise; Rights as a Shareholder. Any Option granted hereunder shall be exercisable at such times and under such conditions as determined by the Administrator, including performance criteria with respect to the Company and/or the Optionee, and as shall be permissible under the terms of the Plan.

An Option may not be exercised for a fraction of a Share.

An Option shall be deemed to be exercised when written notice of such exercise has been given to the Company in accordance with the terms of the Option by the person entitled to exercise the Option and full payment for the Shares with respect to which the Option is exercised has been received by the Company. Full payment may, as authorized by the Administrator, consist of any consideration and method of payment allowable under Section 8(b) of the Plan. Until the issuance (as evidenced by the appropriate entry on the books of the Company or of a duly authorized transfer agent of the Company) of the stock certificate evidencing such Shares, no right to vote or receive dividends or any other rights as a shareholder shall exist with respect to the Optioned Stock, notwithstanding the exercise of the Option. The Company shall issue (or cause to be issued) such stock certificate promptly upon exercise of the Option. No adjustment will be made for a dividend or other right for which the record date is prior to the date the stock certificate is issued, except as provided in Section 11 of the Plan.

Exercise of an Option in any manner shall result in a decrease in the number of Shares which thereafter may be available, both for purposes of the Plan and for sale under the Option, by the number of Shares as to which the Option is exercised.

(b) Termination of Employment. In the event of termination of an

Optionee's consulting relationship or Continuous Status as an Employee with the Company (as the case may be), such Optionee may, but only within ninety (90) days (or such other period of time as is determined by the Board, with such determination in the case of an Incentive Stock Option being made at the time of grant of the Option and not exceeding ninety (90) days) after the date of such termination (but in no event later than the expiration date of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement), exercise his Option to the extent that Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of such termination, or if Optionee does not exercise such Option to the extent so entitled within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate.

(c) Disability of Optionee. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9(b) above, in the event of termination of an Optionee's consulting relationship or Continuous Status as an Employee as a result of his total and permanent disability (as defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Code), Optionee may, but only within twelve (12) months from the date of such termination (but in no event later than the expiration date of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement), exercise the Option to the extent otherwise entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of termination, or if Optionee does not exercise such Option to the extent so entitled within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate.

(d) Death of Optionee. In the event of the death of an Optionee, the Option may be exercised, at any time within twelve (12) months following the date of death (but in no event later than the expiration date of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement), by the Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent the Optionee was entitled to exercise the Option at the date of death. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of termination, or if Optionee does not exercise such Option to the extent so entitled within the time specified herein, the Option shall terminate.

(e) Rule 16b-3. Options granted to persons subject to Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act must comply with Rule 16b-3 and shall contain such additional conditions or restrictions as may be required thereunder to qualify for the maximum exemption from Section 16 of the Exchange Act with respect to Plan transactions.

(f) Buyout Provisions. The Administrator may at any time offer to buy out for a payment in cash or Shares, an Option previously granted, based on such terms and conditions as the Administrator shall establish and communicate to the Optionee at the time that such offer is made.

10. Non-Transferability of Options. The Option may not be sold, pledged, assigned, hypothecated, transferred, or disposed of in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised, during the lifetime of the Optionee, only by the Optionee. The terms of the Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns of the Optionee.

11. Stock Purchase Rights.

(a) Rights to Purchase. Stock purchase rights may be issued either alone, in addition to, or in tandem with other awards granted under the Plan and/or cash awards made outside of the Plan. After the Administrator determines that it will offer stock purchase rights under the Plan, it shall advise the offeree in writing of the terms, conditions and restrictions related to the offer, including the number of Shares that such person shall be entitled to purchase, the price to be paid (which price shall not be less than 50% of the Fair Market Value of the Shares as of the date of the offer), and the time within which such person must accept such offer, which shall in no event exceed thirty (30) days from the date upon which the Administrator made the determination to grant the stock purchase right. The offer shall be accepted by execution of a Restricted Stock purchase agreement in the form determined by the Administrator.

(b) Repurchase Option. Unless the Administrator determines otherwise, the Restricted Stock purchase agreement shall grant the Company a repurchase option exercisable upon the voluntary or involuntary termination of the purchaser's employment with the Company for any reason (including death or Disability). The purchase price for Shares repurchased pursuant to the Restricted Stock purchase agreement shall be the original price paid by the purchaser and may be paid by cancellation of any indebtedness of the purchaser to the Company. The repurchase option shall lapse at such rate as the Committee may determine.

(c) Other Provisions. The Restricted Stock purchase agreement shall contain such other terms, provisions and conditions not inconsistent with the Plan as may be determined by the Administrator in its sole discretion. In addition, the provisions of Restricted Stock purchase agreements need not be the same with respect to each purchaser.

(d) Rights as a Shareholder. Once the stock purchase right is exercised, the purchaser shall have the rights equivalent to those of a shareholder, and shall be a shareholder when his or her purchase is entered upon the records of the duly authorized transfer agent of the Company. No adjustment will be made for a dividend or other right for which the record date is prior to the date the stock purchase right is exercised, except as provided in Section 13 of the Plan.

12. Stock Withholding to Satisfy Withholding Tax Obligations. At the discretion of the Administrator, Optionees may satisfy withholding obligations as provided in this paragraph. When an Optionee incurs tax liability in connection with an Option or stock purchase right, which tax liability is subject to tax withholding under applicable tax laws, and the Optionee is obligated to pay the Company an amount required to be withheld under applicable tax laws, the Optionee may satisfy the withholding tax obligation by electing to have the Company withhold from the Shares to be issued upon exercise of the Option, or the Shares to be issued in connection with the stock purchase right, if any, that number of Shares having a Fair Market Value equal to the amount required to be withheld. The Fair Market Value of the Shares to be withheld shall be determined on the date that the amount of tax to be withheld is to be determined (the "Tax Date").

All elections by an Optionee to have Shares withheld for this purpose shall be made in writing in a form acceptable to the Administrator and shall be subject to the following restrictions:

(a) the election must be made on or prior to the applicable Tax Date;

(b) once made, the election shall be irrevocable as to the particular Shares of the Option or Right as to which the election is made;

(c) all elections shall be subject to the consent or disapproval of the Administrator;

(d) if the Optionee is subject to Rule 16b-3, the election must comply with the applicable provisions of Rule 16b-3 and shall be subject to such additional conditions or restrictions as may be required thereunder to qualify for the maximum exemption from Section 16 of the Exchange Act with respect to Plan transactions.

In the event the election to have Shares withheld is made by an Optionee and the Tax Date is deferred under Section 83 of the Code because no election is filed under Section 83(b) of the Code, the Optionee shall receive the full number of Shares with respect to which the Option or stock purchase right is exercised but such Optionee shall be unconditionally obligated to tender back to the Company the proper number of Shares on the Tax Date.

13. Adjustments Upon Changes in Capitalization or Merger. Subject to any required action by the shareholders of the Company, the number of shares of Common Stock covered by each outstanding Option, and the number of shares of Common Stock which have been authorized for issuance under the Plan but as to which no Options have yet been granted or which have been returned to the Plan upon cancellation or expiration of an Option, as well as the price per share of Common Stock covered by each such outstanding Option, shall be proportionately adjusted for any increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, combination or reclassification of the Common Stock, or any other increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; provided, however, that conversion of any convertible securities of the Company shall not be deemed to have been "effected without receipt of consideration." Such adjustment shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of shares of Common Stock subject to an Option.

In the event of the proposed dissolution or liquidation of the Company, the Board shall notify the Optionee at least fifteen (15) days prior to such proposed action. To the extent it has not been previously exercised, the Option will terminate immediately prior to the consummation of such proposed action. In the event of a merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets (hereinafter, a "merger"), the Option shall be assumed or an equivalent option shall be substituted by such successor corporation or a parent or subsidiary of such successor corporation. In the event that such successor corporation does not agree to assume the Option or to substitute an equivalent option, the Board shall, in lieu of such assumption or substitution, provide for the Optionee to have the right to exercise the Option as to all of the Optioned Stock, including Shares as to which the Option would not otherwise be exercisable. If the Board makes an Option fully exercisable in lieu of assumption or substitution in the event of a merger, the Board shall notify the Optionee that the Option shall be fully exercisable for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of such notice, and the Option will terminate upon the expiration of such period. For the purposes of this paragraph, the Option shall be considered assumed if, following the merger, the Option or right confers the right to purchase, for each Share of stock subject to the Option immediately prior to the merger, the consideration (whether stock, cash, or other securities or property) received in the merger by holders of Common Stock for each Share held on the effective date of the transaction (and if holders were offered a choice of consideration, the type of consideration chosen by the holders of a majority of the outstanding Shares); provided, however, that if such consideration received in the merger was not solely common stock of the successor corporation or its Parent, the Board may, with the consent of the successor corporation and the participant, provide for the consideration to be received upon the exercise of the Option, for each Share of stock subject to the Option, to be solely common stock of the successor corporation or its Parent equal in Fair Market Value to the per share consideration received by holders of Common Stock in the merger or sale of assets.

14. Time of Granting Options. The date of grant of an Option shall, for all purposes, be the date on which the Administrator makes the determination granting such Option, or such other date as is determined by the Board. Notice of the determination shall be given to each Employee or Consultant to whom an Option is so granted within a reasonable time after the date of such grant.

15. Amendment and Termination of the Plan.

(a) Amendment and Termination. The Board may at any time amend, alter, suspend or discontinue the Plan, but no amendment, alteration, suspension or discontinuation shall be made which would impair the rights of any Optionee under any grant theretofore made, without his or her consent. In addition, to the extent necessary and desirable to comply with Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act or with Section 422 of the Code (or any other applicable law or regulation, including the requirements of the NASD or an established stock exchange), the Company shall obtain shareholder approval of any Plan amendment in such a manner and to such a degree as required.

(b) Effect of Amendment or Termination. Any such amendment or termination of the Plan shall not affect Options already granted and such Options shall remain in full force and effect as if this Plan had not been amended or terminated, unless mutually agreed otherwise between the Optionee and the Board, which agreement must be in writing and signed by the Optionee and the Company.

16. Conditions Upon Issuance of Shares. Shares shall not be issued pursuant to the exercise of an Option unless the exercise of such Option and the issuance and delivery of such Shares pursuant thereto shall comply with all relevant provisions of law, including, without limitation, the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Exchange Act, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and the requirements of any stock exchange upon which the Shares may then be listed, and shall be further subject to the approval of counsel for the Company with respect to such compliance.

As a condition to the exercise of an Option, the Company may require the person exercising such Option to represent and warrant at the time of any such exercise that the Shares are being purchased only for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Shares if, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, such a representation is required by any of the aforementioned relevant provisions of law.

17. Reservation of Shares. The Company, during the term of this Plan, will at all times reserve and keep available such number of Shares as shall be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the Plan.

The inability of the Company to obtain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is deemed by the Company's counsel to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any Shares hereunder, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such Shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.

18. Agreements. Options and stock purchase rights shall be evidenced by written agreements in such form as the Board shall approve from time to time.

19. Shareholder Approval. Continuance of the Plan shall be subject to approval by the shareholders of the Company within twelve (12) months before or after the date the Plan is adopted. Such shareholder approval shall be obtained in the degree and manner required under applicable state and federal law.

20. Information to Optionees. The Company shall provide to each Optionee, during the period for which such Optionee has one or more Options outstanding, copies of all annual reports and other information which are provided to all shareholders of the Company. The Company shall not be required to provide such information if the issuance of Options under the Plan is limited to key employees whose duties in connection with the Company assure their access to equivalent information.

Through the Public Combination, Senesco shall become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nava Leisure. c) Each Party shall represent and agree that all confidential information which each Party or any of its officers, employees, agents, consultants, or representatives, may possess or may receive in the future pertaining to the financial or other condition of the other Party, shall not be disclosed or made available to any other person or entity except current members of the Board of Directors or any officer of each other's company at any time without the express written consent of the other Party.

3. CONDITION PRECEDENT TO OBLIGATIONS TO PERFORM

It is understood and agreed by the Parties hereto that this letter does not constitute a binding agreement as to the terms, conditions and representations contained herein, that the terms, conditions and representations expressed herein shall be included in the definitive agreement and that performance of the obligations hereunder is expressly subject to the following conditions:

Official Comment

Section 1301 contains specialized definitions applicable only to part 13.

(1) The definition of "corporation" in section 1301(1) includes successor or acquiring corporation in mergers or share exchanges within the scope of that definition. In these transactions, the obligations of the disappearing or acquired corporations must be assumed by the successor or acquiring corporation and they are thus included within the definition of "corporation."

(2) The definition of "dissenter" in section 1301(2) is phrased in terms of a "shareholder," a term that is itself specially defined in section 1301(7). The definition of "shareholder" for purposes of part 13 differs from the definition of that term used elsewhere in the Model Act. Section 140 defines "shareholder" as used elsewhere in the Act to include only "record shareholders" as defined in section 1301(5). Section 1301(7), on the other hand, defines "shareholder" to include not only "record shareholders" but "beneficial shareholders", a term that is itself defined in section 1301(6). The specially defined terms "record shareholder" and "beneficial shareholder" appear primarily in section 1303, which establishes the manner in which beneficial shareholders, and record shareholders who are acting as nominees for more than one beneficial shareholder, establish dissenters right. The broadest definition of "shareholder" is used generally throughout the balance of part 13 in order to permit beneficial shareholders to take advantage of the provisions of this part as provided in section 1303.

The definition of "dissenter" in section 1301(2) is also limiting, since only a shareholder who has performed all the conditions imposed on him by this part in order to obtain payment for his shares is a "dissenter." Under this definition, a shareholder who initially objects but fails to perform any of these conditions within the times specified by this chapter loses his status as "dissenter" under this section.

(3) The definition of "fair value" in section 1301(3) leaves to the parties (and ultimately to the courts) the details by which "fair value" is to be determined within the broad outlines of the definition. This definition thus leaves untouched the accumulated case law about market value, value based on prior sales, capitalized earnings value, and asset value. It specifically preserves the former language excluding appreciation and depreciation in anticipation of the proposed corporate action, but permits an exception for equitable considerations. The purpose of this exception ("unless exclusion would be inequitable") is to permit consideration of factors similar to those approved by the Supreme Court of Delaware in Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., 457 A.2d 701 (Del.1983), a case in which the court found that the transaction did not involve fair dealing or fair price: "In our view this includes the elements of rescissory damages if the Chancellor considers them susceptible of proof and a remedy appropriate to all the issues of fairness before him." Consideration of appreciation or depreciation which might result from other corporate actions is permitted; these effects in the past have often been reflected either in market value or capitalized earnings value.

"Fair value" is to be determined immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action, instead of the date of the shareholder's vote, as is the case under most state statutes that address the issue. This comports with the plan of this part to preserve the dissenter's prior rights as a shareholder until the effective date of the corporate action, rather than leaving him in a twilight zone where he has lost his former rights, but has not yet gained his new ones.

(4) The definition of "interest" in section 1301(4) is included to make interest computations under this part more realistic. The right to receive interest is based on the elementary consideration that the corporation has the use of the dissenter's money, and the dissenter has no use of it, from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment. The definition also requires the adjustment of rates to accommodate radical changes in prevailing rates like those seen in the late 1970s and early 1980s and that may be seen again in the future. The specification of the rate currently paid by the corporation provides a prima facie standard which should facilitate voluntary settlements. The date from which interest runs has been changed from the date of the shareholders' vote to the effective date of the corporate action, in conformity with the change of the valuation date in section 1301(3).

New Model Act part 13 completely reorganizes the provisions of the prior Model Act previously contained in old I.C.(SS) 30-1-80 and 81. The substance of this new part 13 is based almost entirely on the prior provisions, but what appeared in two sections is here reorganized into the fourteen sections of part 13.

Specifically with respect to definitions, new Model Acts (S) 1301's first four definitions are taken from old I.C. (S) 30-1-81(a) with only stylistic changes. The last three definitions, however, are new. They were added to clarify the intent of the part and also to integrate these definitions with those of part 1 and with the provisions in the new section 1303.

30-1-1302 Right to dissent.

(1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:

(i) If shareholder approval is required for the merger by section 30-1-1103, Idaho Code, or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or

(ii) If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under section 30-1-1104, Idaho Code;

(b) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;

(c) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one (1) year after the date of sale;

(d) An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:

(i) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(ii) Creates, alters or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares;

(iii) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(iv) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(v) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under section 30-1-604, Idaho Code; or

(e) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his shares under this part may not challenge the corporate action creating his entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

(3) This section does not apply to the holders of shares of any class or series if the shares of the class or series are redeemable securities issued by a registered investment company as defined pursuant to the investment company act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. 80a-15 U.S.C. 80a-64).

(4) Unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation provide otherwise, this section does not apply to the holders of shares of a class or series if the shares of the class or series were registered on a national securities exchange, were listed on the national market systems of the national association of securities dealers automated quotation system or were held of record by at least two thousand (2,000) shareholders on the date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to vote on the proposed corporate action.

Official Comment

1. TRANSACTIONS GIVING RISE TO DISSENTERS' RIGHTS. Section 1302(1) establishes the scope of a shareholder's right to dissent (and his resulting right to obtain payment for his shares) by defining the transactions with respect to which a right to dissent exists. These transactions are:

(a) A plan of merger if the shareholder (i) is entitled to vote on the merger under section 1103 or pursuant to provisions in the articles of incorporation, or (ii) is a shareholder of a subsidiary that is merged with a parent under section 1104. The right to vote on a merger under section 1103 extends to corporation whose separate existence disappears in the merger and to the surviving corporation if the number of its outstanding shares is increased by more than 20 percent as a result of the merger.

(b) A share exchange under section 1102 if the corporation is a party whose shares are being acquired by the plan and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the exchange.

(c) A sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation not in the usual course of business under section 1202 if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange. Section 1302(1)(c) generally grants dissenters' rights in connection with sales in the process of dissolution but excludes them in connection with sales by court order and sales for cash that require substantially all the proceeds to be distributed to the shareholders within one year. The inclusion of sales in dissolution is designed to ensure that the right to dissent cannot be avoided by characterizing sales as made in the process of dissolution long before distribution is made. An exception is provided for sales for cash pursuant to a plan that provides for distribution within one year. These transactions are unlikely to be unfair to minority shareholders since majority and minority are being treated in precisely the same way and all shareholders will ultimately receive cash for their shares. A sale other than for cash gives rise to a right of dissent since property sometimes cannot be converted into cash until long after receipt and a minority shareholder should not be compelled to assume the risk of delays or market declines. Similarly, a plan that provides for a prompt distribution of the property received gives rise to the right of dissent since the minority shareholder should not be compelled to accept for his shares different securities or other property that may not be readily marketable.

The exclusion of court-ordered sales from the dissenter's right is based on the view that court review and approval ensures that an independent appraisal of the fairness of the transaction has been made.

(d) Amendments to articles of incorporation that impair the shareholders' rights as shareholders in any of the enumerated ways. The reasons for granting a right of dissent in these situations are similar to those for granting such rights in cases of merger and transfer of assets. The grant of these rights increases the security of investors by allowing them to escape when the nature of their investment rights is fundamentally altered or they are compelled to accept cash for their investment in an amount established by the corporation. The grant also enhances the freedom of the majority to make changes, because the existence of an escape hatch makes fair and reasonable a change that might be unfair if it forced a fundamental change of rights upon unwilling investors without giving them a reasonable alternative.

(e) Any corporate action to the extent the articles, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors grant a right of dissent. Corporations may wish to grant on a voluntary basis dissenters rights in connection with important transactions (e.g., those submitted for shareholder approval). The grant may be to nonvoting shareholders in connection with transactions that give rise to dissenters' rights with respect to voting shareholders. The grant of dissenters' rights may add to the attractiveness of preferred shares, and may satisfy shareholders who would, in the absence of dissenters' rights, sue to enjoin the transaction. Also, in situations where the existence of dissenters' rights may otherwise be disputed, the voluntary offer of those rights under this section will avoid a dispute.

Generally, only shareholders who are entitled to vote on the transaction are entitled to assert dissenters rights with respect to the transaction. The right to vote may be based on the articles of incorporation or other provisions of the Model Act. For example, a class of nonvoting shares may nevertheless be entitled to vote (either as a separate voting group or as part of the general voting group) on an amendment to the articles of incorporation that affects them as provided in one of the ways set forth in section 1004; such a class is entitled to assert dissenters' rights if the transaction also falls within section 1302. On the other hand, such a class does not have the right to vote on a sale of substantially all the corporation's assets not in the ordinary course of business, and therefore that class is not entitled to assert dissenters' rights with respect to that sale. One exception to this principle is the merger of a subsidiary into its parent under section 1104 in which minority shareholders of the subsidiary have the right to assert dissenters' rights even though they have no right to vote.

2. EXCLUSIVITY OF DISSENTERS' RIGHTS. Section 1302(2) basically adopts the New York formula as to exclusivity of the dissenters' remedy of this part. The remedy is the exclusive remedy unless the transaction is "unlawful" or "fraudulent." The theory underlying this section is as follows: when a majority of shareholders has approved a corporate change, the corporation should be permitted to proceed even if a minority considers the change unwise or disadvantageous, and persuades a court that this is correct. Since dissenting shareholders can obtain the fair value of their shares, they are protected from pecuniary loss. Thus in general terms an exclusivity principle is justified. But the prospect that shareholders may be "paid off" does not justify the corporation in proceeding unlawfully or fraudulently. If the corporation attempts an action in violation of the corporation law on voting, in violation of clauses in articles of incorporation prohibiting it, by deception of shareholders, or in violation of a fiduciary duty--to take some examples--the court's freedom to intervene should be unaffected by the presence or absence of dissenters' rights under this part. Because of the variety of situations in which unlawfulness and fraud may appear, this section makes no attempt to specify particular illustrations. Rather, it is designed to recognize and preserve the principles that have developed in the case law of Delaware, New York and other states with regard to the effect of dissenters' rights on other remedies of dissent shareholders. See Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., 457 A.2d 701 (Dcl. 1983)(appraisal remedy may not be adequate "where fraud, misrepresentation, self-dealing, deliberate waste of corporate assets, or gross palpable overreaching are involved"). See also Vorenberg, "Exclusiveness of the Dissenting Stockholders' Appraisal Right," 77 HARV. L. REV. 1189 (1964).

New Model Act (S) 1302(1) is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-80(a) and (c); new section 1302(2) is based on prior (S)80(d). Only minor substantive and stylistic changes are made in both new subsections (1) and (2).

New subsection (1) does involve amendment to make it clear that only shareholders who were entitled to vote are entitled to dissenters' rights. Further, new subsection (1)(d)(v) was added to extend dissenters rights to an articles amendment that involved a "cash out" effectuated through the device of a reverse share split.

The 1997 revision added new subsections (3) and (4) to the Official Text on the theory that the market provides a remedy for dissenting shareholders of the companies described therein.

30-1-1303 Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one (1) person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on his behalf only if:

(a) He submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(b) He does so with respect to all shares of which he is the beneficial shareholder or over which he has power to direct the vote.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1303, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S)2, p. 1080.]

Official Comment

Section 1303 addresses the relationship between dissenters' rights and the widespread practice of nominee or street name ownership of publicly held shares. Generally, a shareholder must dissent with respect to all the shares he owns or over which he has power to direct the vote. If a record shareholder is a nominee for several beneficial shareholders, however, some of whom wish to dissent and some of whom do not, section 1303(1) permits the record shareholder to dissent with respect to a portion of the shares owned by him but only with respect to all the shares beneficially owned by a single person. This limitation is necessary to prevent speculative abuse by a single beneficial shareholder who is not fundamentally opposed to the proposed corporate action but who may wish to gamble, as to some of his shares, on the possibility of a high payment to dissenters.

Section 1303(1) also requires a record shareholder who dissents with respect to a portion of the shares held by him to notify the corporation of the name and address of the beneficial owner on whose behalf he has dissented.

Section 1303(2) permits a beneficial shareholder to assert dissenters' rights directly if he submits the record shareholder's written consent. Generally, corporations treat the record shareholder as the owner of shares, and a beneficial shareholder is entitled to assert dissenters' rights only as set forth in this section. It would be foreign to the premises underlying nominee and street name ownership to require these record shareholders to forward demands and participate in litigation on behalf of their clients. In order to make dissenters' rights effective without burdening record shareholders, beneficial shareholders should be allowed to assert their own claims as provided in this subsection. The beneficial shareholder is required to submit a written consent by the record shareholder to his assertion of dissenters' rights to verify the beneficial shareholder's entitlement and to permit the protection of any security interest in the shares. In practice, a broker's customer who receives a forwarded notice of proposed corporate action and who wishes to dissent may request the broker to supply him with the name of the record shareholder (which may be a house nominee or a nominee of the Depository Trust Company), and a form of consent signed by the record shareholder. From that point forward, the corporation must deal with the beneficial shareholder.

New Model Act (S) 1303 is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-80(b), with stylistic changes. The three new definitions added to section 1301 ("record shareholder," "beneficial shareholder," and "shareholder") led to several clarifying changes in the language of section 1303.

30-1-1320 Notice of dissenters' rights.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 30-1-1302, Idaho Code, is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this part and be accompanied by a copy of this part.

(2) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 30-1-1302, Idaho Code, is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters' notice described in section 30-1-1322, Idaho Code.

[I.C.,(S) 30-1-1320, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2,p. 1080.]

Sections 30-1-1320 -- 30-1-1328 are referred to in 30-1-1301.

Official Comment

Section 1320(1) requires the corporation to notify record shareholders of the existence of dissenters rights before the vote is taken on the corporate action. This notice provides the reassurance to investors that the right to dissent is intended to provide because many shareholders have no idea what rights of dissent they may have or how to assert them. If the corporation is uncertain whether or not the shareholders have dissenters rights, it may comply with this notice requirement by stating that the shareholders "may have" dissenters rights.

A similar requirement of notice is expressly required by proxy rules, by the dissenters rights statutes of several states, and possibly under more general disclosure requirements of federal and state securities laws. Section 1320(2) provides that notice be given after the action is taken in situations where the action is validly taken without a vote of shareholders, e.g., in a merger of a subsidiary into its parent under section 1104. This notice may be combined with the dissenters' notice required by section 1322.

New Model Act (S) 1320(1) is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(b), and section 1320(2) is based on the second sentence of old I.C. (S) 30-1-81(d). Both new subsections include stylistic and clarifying changes.

30-1-1321 Notice of intent to demand payment.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 30-1-1302, Idaho Code, is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(a) Must deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of his intent to demand payment for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(b) Must not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action.

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this section is not entitled to payment for his shares under this part.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1321, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

Official Comment

If a shareholder's vote is called for, section 1321(1) requires the shareholder to give notice of his intent to demand payment before the vote on the corporate action is taken. This notice enables other voters to determine how much of a cash payment may be required. It also serves to limit the number of persons to whom the corporation must give further notice, including the technical details of depositing share certificates. This subsection has no application to actions taken without a shareholder vote.

In order to be and remain a dissenter eligible to demand payment for his shares, the section requires that a shareholder must not only give the notice required by this section but must also vote against, or abstain from voting on, the proposal.

Prior to the adoption of this new Model Act (S) 1321, Idaho and Ohio were the only jurisdictions that did not require the shareholder to notify the corporation of her intent to dissent before the shareholders' meeting or before the vote on the particular action is taken. In the words of the Idaho bar committee at the time of the 1979 revision, "...this requirement unduly limited dissenting rights. Many shareholders are not sufficiently informed of corporate action and dissenting rights to properly give such a notice prior to the vote on the issue." So new Model Act (S) 1321, subsection (1)(a) changes prior Idaho law. The 1997 revisers determined that Idaho should adopt this provision in keeping with all other jurisdictions, except Ohio.

Subsection (1)(b), on the other hand, simply restates the prior requirement that Idaho shares with all jurisdictions.

30-1-1322 Dissenters' notice.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 30-1-1302, Idaho Code, is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of section 30-1-1321, Idaho Code.

(2) The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than ten (10) days after the corporate action was taken, and must:

(a) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

(b) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

(c) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters rights certify whether or not he acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(d) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the date the notice in subsection (1) of this section is delivered; and

(e) Be accompanied by a copy of this part.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1322, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

This section is referred to in (S)(S) 30-1-1326 and 30-1-1320.

Official Comment

The basic purpose of section 1322 is to require the corporation to tell all actual or potential dissenters what they must do in order to take advantage of their right of dissent. The requirements of what this notice (called a "dissenters' notice") must contain are spelled out in detail to ensure that this notice serves this basic purpose.

In the case of an action that is submitted to the vote of shareholders, the dissenters' notice must be sent only to those persons who gave notice of their intention to dissent under this section 1321 and who refrained from voting in favor of the proposed actions. In the case of a transaction not involving a vote by shareholders, the dissenters' notice must be sent to all persons who are eligible to dissent and demand payment. In either case the dissenters' notice must be sent within 10 days after the corporate action is taken and must be accompanied by a copy of this part.

The notice must contain or be accompanied by a form which a person asserting dissenters rights may use to complete the demand for payment under section 1323. The form must specify the date by which it must be received by the corporation, which date must be at least 30 days after the effective date of the notice of how to demand payment.

The dissenters' notice must also specify where and when share certificates must be deposited, or, in the case of uncertificated shares, when restrictions on transfer will become effective under section 1324. The date for deposit of share certificates may not be set at a date earlier than the date for receiving the demand for payment.

Section 1322(2)(c) requires the corporation to specify the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action. This is the critical date for determining the rights of shareholder-transferees: persons who became shareholders prior to that date are entitled to the full right to dissent and obtain payment for their shares, while persons who became shareholders on or after that date are entitled only to the more limited rights provided by section 1327. See the Official Comments to sections 1323 and 1327. It is appropriate for the corporation to furnish this critical date since it knows when information relating to the transaction was publicly released. The date selected should be the date the terms were announced, not the earlier date when consideration of the proposed transaction may have been announced.

Under prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(d), the required notice went to all shareholders who did not vote in favor of the proposed action. New Model Act (S) 1322(1) would require notice only to those shareholders who themselves noticed the corporation under section 1321(1)(a). Again, our existing law is more "shareholder friendly." But only Ohio remains so friendly and the 1997 revisers decided to opt for uniformity here. New subsection (2) largely tracks prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(d), with the following minor changes:

(1) specification that the notice must go out within ten (10) days after the corporate action at issue;

(2) additional detail in subsection (2)(c) requiring certain information be provided on the form for demanding payment; and

(3) an outside limit of sixty (60) days within which the payment demand must be received.

30-1-1323 Duty to demand payment.

(1) A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in section 30-1-1322, Idaho Code, must demand payment, certify whether he acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to section 30-1-1322(2)(c), Idaho Code, and, with respect to any certificated shares, deposit his certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(2) The shareholder who demands payment and, with respect to any certificated shares, deposits his share certificates under subsection (1) of this section retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

(3) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit his share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for his shares under this part.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1323, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

This section is referred to in (S) 30-1-1325.

Official Comment

The demand for payment required by section 1323 is the definitive statement by the dissenter. In the case of a transaction involving a vote by shareholders, it is a confirmation of the 'intention' expressed earlier; in the case of any other transaction, it is the person's first statement of position. In either event, the filing of these demands informs the corporation of the extent of the potential cash drain if it proceeds with the proposed corporate action. The demand for payment must include a certificate as to whether the date on which the dissenter acquired ownership of the shares was before (or on or after) the announcement date. See section 1322(2)(c). This information permits the issuer to detect acquisitions made for speculative or obstructive purposes and to exercise its right under section 1327 to defer payment of compensation for these shares.

Section 1323(1) also requires a person who files a demand for payment to deposit his share certificates as directed by the corporation in its dissenters' notice. The deposit of share certificates is necessary to prevent dissenters from giving themselves a 30-day option to take payment if the market price of the shares goes down, but sell their shares on the open market if the price goes up. If this kind of speculation were possible, all sophisticated investors might be expected to file demands that they would not intend to carry through unless the price should fall. If the shares are not represented by certificates, the corporation can prevent speculation by restricting their transfer, as authorized by section 1324.

With respect to certificated shares, this provision differs from many statutes in that the certificates are 'deposited' for retention, rather than "submitted for notation." This change assumes that the corporation will retain the certificates unless it fails to effectuate the proposed corporate action; it thus avoids the need of sending the certificates back to the shareholders, only to be surrendered again when payment is made. In most cases, payment will be made promptly, and the shuttling of certificates back and forth is unnecessary.

A person who fails to file the demand for payment or does not deposit his share certificates as required by section 1323(1) loses his status as a dissenter entitled to payment for his shares. But a person who fails to certify whether he acquired his shares before (or on or after) the announcement date does not lose his right to dissent; if he does not thereafter establish that he acquired his shares before the announcement date, the corporation may treat him as an after-acquiring shareholder under section 1327.

A shareholder who deposits his shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until those rights are modified by effectuation of the proposed corporate action. See section 1323(2).

New Model Act (S) 1323, subsection (1) makes express what was implicit in prior I.C (S) 30-1-81(e)'s first sentence, namely the requirement that the shareholder file a formal demand for payment. Subsection (1) also requires that the shareholder deposit certificates and certify when he obtained ownership of the shares, both as contemplated in other provisions of part 13.

New subsection (2) is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(e)'s first sentence, with stylistic changes.

We have added to the Official Text in subsections (1) and (2) the references to "certificated shares."

30-1-1324 Share restrictions.

(1) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions released under section 30-1-1326, Idaho Code.

(2) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1324, as added by 1997, ch 366 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

Official Comment

Section 1324 deals with uncertificated shares in the dissent process. Section 1323(1) requires certificated shares to be deposited as directed by the corporation in its dissenters' notice; the restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares provided by this section impose an analogous restriction on uncertificated shares for the same reasons. See the Official Comment to section 1323.

Section 1324(2) makes express that the restriction on transfer of shares provided by this section does not affect any other rights of the shareholder until these rights are modified by the corporate action.

New Model Act (S) 1324 is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(e)'s second and third sentences, with stylistic changes. The first sentence in prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(e) is relocated as new section 1323(3).

30-1-1325 Payment.

(1) Except as provided in section 30-1-1327, Idaho Code, as soon as the proposed corporate action is taken, or upon receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with section 30-1-1323, Idaho Code, the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of his shares, plus accrued interest.

(2) The payment must be accompanied by:

(a) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(b) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(c) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;

(d) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under section 30-1-1328, Idaho Code; and

(e) A copy of this part.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1325, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2. p. 1080.]

This section is referred to in (S) 30-1-1327 and 30-1-1328,

Official Comment

Section 1325 changes the relative balance between corporation and dissenting shareholders by requiring immediate payment by the corporation upon the completion of the transaction or (if the transaction did not need shareholder approval and has been completed) upon receipt of the demand for payment. The corporation may not wait for a final agreement on value before making payment, and the shareholder has the immediate use of the amount determined by the corporation to represent fair value without waiting for the conclusion of appraisal proceedings.

This obligation to make immediate payment is based on the view that since the person's rights as a shareholder are terminated with the completion of the transaction, he should have immediate use of the money to which the corporation agrees it has no further claim. A difference of opinion over the total amount to be paid should not delay payment of the amount that is undisputed.

Since the shareholder must decide whether or not to accept the payment in full satisfaction, he must be furnished at this time with the financial information specified in section 1325(2), with a reminder of his further rights and liabilities, and with a copy of this part.

New Model Act (S) 1325 is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(f)(3), with stylistic changes. Subsection (2)(c) is new, the idea being that provision of such information is appropriate when payment is made.

ID ST s 30-1-1325

30-1-1326 Failure to take action.

(1) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under section 30-1-1322, Idaho Code, and repeat the payment demand procedure.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1326, as added by 1997, ch. 336 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

This section is referred to in (S) 30-1-1324.

Official Comment

Section 1326 essentially grants the corporation 60 days after the payment demand date to complete the transaction and make payment for the shares as required by section 1325. If the corporation is unable to complete the corporate action within 60 days, it must release the shares, and give a new notice when it is ready to repeat the cycle. This requirement prevents the corporation from holding the dissenter indefinitely in a position where he has no possibility of realizing on his shares either by obtaining payment from the corporation or by selling them. If the transaction has been effected but the corporation fails to make payment as required by this part, it is subject to the sanctions of section 1331(2).

Section 1326(2) makes it clear that the corporation at any time after returning the deposited shares may send a new dissenters' notice under section 1322 and repeat the procedure.

New Model Act (S) 1326 corresponds directly to and is based on prior I.C (S) 30-1-81(f)(1) and (2), with stylistic changes. There is a slight change in that whereas old section 81(f)(1) referred to both failing to take the corporate action and failing to make payment as the triggering events, new section 1326 refers only to failing to take the corporate action. The idea seems to be that the operative act triggering this section should be simply the failure to take the corporate action.

30-1-1327 After-acquired shares.

(1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by section 30-1-1325, Idaho Code, from a dissenter unless he was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

(2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1) of this section, after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of his demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of this dissenter's rights to demand payment under section 30-1-1328, Idaho Code.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1327, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2.p. 1080.]

This section is referred to in (S) 30-1-1325.

Official Comment

Section 1327 provides for separate treatment of shares acquired on or after the date of public announcement of the proposed corporation action; this date is specified by the corporation in its dissenters' notice under section 1322. At the corporation's option, holders of shares acquired on or after this date are not entitled to immediate payment under section 1325; rather, they may receive only an offer of payment which is conditioned on their agreement to accept it in full satisfaction of their claim. If the right of unconditional immediate payment were granted as to all after-acquired shares, speculators and others might be tempted to buy shares merely for the purpose of dissenting. Since the function of dissenters' rights is to protect investors against unforeseen changes, there is no need to give equally favorable treatment to purchasers who knew or should have known about the proposed changes.

Corporations are given discretion whether to apply section 1327 to after-acquired shares. Considerations of simplicity and harmony may prompt the corporation to make immediate payment for shares acquired on or after the specified date as well as for preacquired shares.

The date used as a cut-off for determining the application of this section is when "the terms" of the transaction are first announced to the news media or shareholders. The cut-off should not be set at an earlier date, such as when the first public statement that the corporate action was under consideration was made, because the goal of this section is to prevent use of dissenters' rights as a speculative device after the terms of the transaction are announced. See the Official Comment to section 1322.

A dissenter under this section may accept the offered payment in full satisfaction; if he does not, he is entitled to demand a judicial determination of the amount to which he is entitled under sections 1328 and 1330. He is then entitled to payment of the amount so determined at the termination of the proceeding.

New Model Act(S) 1327 is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(j)(1), with the usual stylistic changes. The changes make it clearer that the special unfavorable treatment of after-acquired shares is voluntary with the corporation and applicable to those who acquired the shares on the date of the announcement as well as thereafter.

30-1-1328 Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

(1) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of his estimate, less any payment under section 30-1-1325, Idaho Code, or reject the corporation's offer under section 30-1-1327, Idaho Code, and demand payment of the fair value of his shares and interest due, if:

(a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under section 30-1-1325, Idaho Code, or offered under section 30-1-1327, Idaho Code, is less than the fair value of his shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(b) The corporation fails to make payment under section 30-1-1325, Idaho Code, within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment; or

(c) The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertified shares within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment.

(2) A dissenter waives his right to demand payment under this section unless he notifies the corporation of his demand in writing under subsection (1) of this section within thirty (30) days after the corporation made or offered payment for his shares.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1328, as added by 1997, ch. 336 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

This section is referred to in (S) (S) 30-1-1330 and 30-1-1331.

Official Comment

Section 1328 also departs significantly from the prior law of dissenters rights.

The dissenter who is not content with the corporation's remittance must state in writing the amount he is willing to accept. A dissenter who acquired his shares after public announcement of the transaction (section 1327) and is dissatisfied with the corporation's offer must also state in writing the amount he is willing to accept. A dissenter cannot, by remaining silent, force the corporation into the expense and delay of a judicial appraisal. Furthermore, if his supplemental demand is unreasonable, he runs the risk of being assessed litigation expenses under section 1331. The provisions are designed to encourage settlement without a judicial proceeding.

A dissenter to whom the corporation has made payment (or who has been offered payment under section 1327) must make his supplemental demand within 30 days after receipt for the payment (or offer of payment) in order to permit the corporation to make an early decision on initiating appraisal proceedings. If he fails to do so, he loses the right to demand additional payment under section 1328(2).

If the corporation, having failed to make payment, also fails to return the certificates previously deposited or release the restrictions on transfer of uncertified securities within 60 days, the shareholder may treat the shares as purchased by the corporation and demand payment of the full amount claimed under this section. See section 1330(1). This provision creates no hardship for the corporation since, if it cannot complete the transaction within 60 days, it may return the certificates (or release the restrictions on uncertified shares) and start the process over again at any time.

New Model Act (S) 1328 is based prior I.C (SS) 30-1-81(g) and (j)(2), with of course stylistic changes. "Technical" changes have been made in new subsection (1) to assure its applicability upon either the failure to make payment if the action was taken or the failure to return the shares if the action was not taken.

30-1-1330 Court action to determine share value.

(1) If a demand for payment under section 30-1-1328, Idaho Code, remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty (60) days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the Idaho district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding, as in an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one (1) or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgement:

(a) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of his shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

(b) For the fair value, plus accrued interest, of his after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 30-1-1327, Idaho Code.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1330, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

Official Comment

Section 1330 retains the concept of judicial appraisal as the ultimate means of determining fair value. The proceeding is to be commenced by the corporation within 60 days after receiving a demand for payment under section 1328. Section 1330(1) makes this time period jurisdictional; if the petition is not commenced within this period the corporation must pay the additional amounts demanded by the shareholders under section 1328. See the Official Comment to that section. Each shareholder may sue directly for this amount, if necessary, and in an appropriate case may be entitled to charge the corporation with the costs of suit.

All demands for payment made under section 1328 are to be resolved in a single proceeding brought in the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if none, in other specified counties. All shareholders making section 1328 demands must be made parties, with service by publication authorized if necessary. Appraisers may be appointed within the discretion of the court. The final judgement establishes not only the fair value of the shares in the abstract but also determines how much each shareholder who made a section 1328 demand should actually receive.

If the corporation fails to commence a judicial proceeding to establish the fair value of the shares as required by this section, it must pay the full amount claimed under this section.

New Model Act (S) 1330 is based on prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(h), with both the usual stylistic changes and at least one minor substantive change. A minor substantive revision is made with respect to the designated court in subsection (2). Under prior I.C. (S) 30-1-81(h)(2), the "appropriate" court is the district court in the county where the registered office is located. Under new subsection (2), this is changed to the county of the principal office, unless there is none. We have seen similar changes throughout the new Model Act in other sections involving judicial proceedings involving internal corporate affairs.

30-1-1331 Court costs and counsel fees.

(1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 30-1-1330, Idaho Code, shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under section 30-1-1328, Idaho Code.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of sections 30-1-1320 through 30-1-1328, Idaho Code; or

(b) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this part.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to dissenters who were benefited.

[I.C., (S) 30-1-1331, as added by 1997, ch. 366 (S) 2, p. 1080.]

Official Comment

Section 1331 provides that generally the costs of the appraisal proceeding should be assessed against the corporation. But the court is authorized to assess these costs, in whole or in part, against the dissenters if it concludes they acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in making the section 1328 demand for additional payment. Similarly, counsel fees may be charged against the corporation or against dissenters upon a finding of a failure to comply in good faith with the requirements of this part. Individual dissenters, in turn, can be called upon to pay counsel fees for other dissenters if the court finds that the services were of substantial benefit to the other dissenters.

The purpose of all these grants of discretion with respect to costs and counsel fees is to increase the incentives of both sides to proceed in good faith under this part to costs and counsel fees is to increase the incentives of both sides to proceed in good faith under this part to attempt to resolve their disagreement without the need of a formal judicial appraisal of the value of shares.

New Model Act (S) 1331 is based on our prior I.C.(S) 30-1-81(i), with the usual stylistic revisions.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Nava Leisure USA, Inc.
Salt Lake City, Utah

We have audited the balance sheet of Nava Leisure USA, Inc. (a development stage company) as of June 30, 1998 and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit) and cash flows for the years ended June 30, 1998 and 1997 and from inception on April 1, 1964 through June 30, 1998. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Nava Leisure USA, Inc. as of June 30, 1998 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended June 30, 1998 and 1997 and from inception on April 1, 1964 through June 30, 1998 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 3 to the financial statements, the Company is a development stage company with no established source of revenues. These conditions raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans concerning these matters are also described in Note 3. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. Organization

The financial statements presented are those of Nava Leisure USA, Inc. (a development stage company) (the Company). The Company was incorporated on April 1, 1964 in the State of Idaho as Felton Products, Inc. for the purpose of engaging in investing activities.

On October 13, 1987, the Company issued 12,000,000 of its previously unissued authorized shares to acquire the assets of Copytex. In connection with this agreement, the Company changed its name to Ink & Imagers, Inc. On October 3, 1988, the Company rescinded the agreement with Copytex. The shares issued pursuant to the agreement were returned and canceled.

On November 30, 1998, the Company entered into an agreement with Nava Leisure USA, Inc. (Nava), whereby, it would acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Nava in exchange for 18,730,900 shares of its common stock, 1,002,000 shares of its series A preferred stock and 89,670 shares of its series B preferred stock. In connection with this agreement, the Company changed its name to Nava Leisure USA, Inc. On December 15, 1995, the Company rescinded the agreement due to non-performance by Nava. All shares issued per the agreement were canceled and the cancellation was shown retroactively. (Note 2).

The Company is currently inactive, and is seeking other business opportunities through mergers and acquisitions.

b. Accounting Method

The Company's financial statements are prepared using the accrual method of accounting. The Company has elected a June 30 year end.

c. Net Loss Per Share

The computation of net loss per share of common stock is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period.

d. Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

e. Provision for Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under Statement 109, the liability method is used in accounting for income taxes.

As of June 30, 1998, the Company had net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $36,000 that may be offset against future taxable income through 2013. The tax benefit of the net loss carryforwards is offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount due to the uncertainty that the carryforwards will be used before they expire.

f. Stock Split

On October 27, 1988, the Company effected a split of its common shares outstanding on a 1.5-for-1 basis. The financial statements have been retroactively restated to reflect the effects of this stock split.

g. Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 - LITIGATION

On September 26, 1994, a shareholder of the Company filed a lawsuit against the Company and the shareholders (the Shareholders) that received shares of the of the Company's stock per the exchange agreement between the Company and Nava Leisure USA, Inc. (a Delaware corporation). The lawsuit alleged that the terms of the agreement had not been fulfilled, and that the exchange agreement should be unwound as a result of the non-performance. The lawsuit also sought damages from the shareholders in the amount of $35,000 on behalf of the Company.

On December 11, 1995, a default judgment was recorded in favor of the shareholder who had filed the lawsuit. The judgment ordered that the Exchange Agreement be rescinded, that the shares issued per the Exchange Agreement be returned to the Company, and that the Company be awarded damages warded. Due to the uncertainty that the Company will collect any of the damages, the amount has been offset in full by a valuation allowance.

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements are prepared using generally accepted accounting principles applicable to a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. However, the Company does not have significant cash or other material assets, nor does it have an established source of revenues sufficient to cover its operating costs and to allow it to continue as a going concern. It is the intent of the Company to seek a merger with an existing, operating company. Currently, the stockholders are committed to covering all operating expenses and other costs until sufficient revenues are generated.

NOTE 4 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the years ended June 30, 1998 and 1997, a shareholder of the Company paid expenses on its behalf in the amounts of $10,781 and $7,403, respectively. These amounts were contributed by the shareholder to the capital of the Company.

BACKGROUND AND HISTORICAL INFORMATION

The financial statements presented are those of Senesco Technologies, Inc. (a development stage company) (the Company). The Company was incorporated on April 1, 1964 in the State of Idaho as Felton Products, Inc. for the purpose of engaging in investing activities.

On October 13, 1987, the Company issued 12,000,000 of its previously unissued authorized shares to acquire the assets of Copytex. In connection with this agreement, the Company changed its name to Ink & Imagers, Inc. On October 3, 1988, the Company rescinded the agreement with Copytex. The shares issued pursuant to the agreement were returned and canceled.

On November 30, 1998, the Company entered into an agreement with Nava Leisure USA, Inc, (Nava), whereby, it would acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of Nava in exchange for 18,730,900 shares of its common stock, 1,002,000 shares of its Series A preferred stock and 89,670 shares of its Series B preferred stock. In connection with this agreement, the Company changed its name to Nava Leisure USA, Inc. On December 15, 1995, the Company rescinded the agreement due to non-performance by Nava. All shares issued per the agreement were canceled and the cancellation was shown retroactively.

The Company was inactive, and was seeking other business opportunities through mergers and acquisition.

Senesco, LLC (SLCC) was formed in June 1998 to commercially exploit potentially significant technology in connection with the identification and characterization of a gene (a lipase gene) which controls the aging of plants (flowers, fruits and vegetables).

SLCC has formulated a Phase One research and development plan to attempt to further characterize the gene in flowers, fruits and vegetables. Senescence in plant tissues is the natural aging of these tissues. Loss of cellular membrane integrity attributable to lipase gene activity is an early event during the senescence of all plant tissues that prompts the deterioration of fresh flowers, fruits and vegetables. This loss of integrity is attributable to the formation of lipid metabolites in membrane bi-layers that "phase-separate" and cause the membranes to become "leaky". A decline in cell function ensues leading to deterioration and eventual death (spoilage of the tissue).

Presently, the technology utilized for controlling senescence and increasing the shelf life of flowers, fruits and vegetables relies on reducing ethylene biosynthesis, and hence only has application to a limited number of plants that are ethylene-sensitive. SLCC is researching a plan to avoid this limitation since Senesco believes that the lipase gene is present in all plants.

Currently, SLLC's research and development plan focuses on gene characterization of carnation for flowers, tomato for fruits, and Arabidopsis thaliana for (leafy) vegetables. In addition, SLLC expects to enter into a joint venture with an Israeli company. The joint venture is expected to be based on the contribution by SLLC of its gene technology and Rahan Meristem's know-how in banana fruit. Rahan Meristem is in the business of worldwide export marketing in genetically engineered banana plants.

The inventor of SLLC's technology is John E. Thompson, Ph.D., who is the Dean of Science at the University of Waterloo in Waterloo, Ontario. SLLC is currently negotiating a three-year research and development agreement with Dr. Thompson and the University of Waterloo.

SLLC filed a patent application on June 26, 1998 to protect the above-described developments/inventions.

PROFORMA TRANSACTIONS

The historical financial information contained herein has been consolidated assuming the issuance of 1,700,000 common stock of Senesco Technologies, Inc. The balance sheet of Senesco Technologies, Inc. is shown as of September 30, 1998 and the balance sheet of Senesco, LLC (SLLC) is shown as of September 30, 1998. The statement of operation of Senesco Industries, Inc. is for the year ended June 30, 1998 and the statement of operations of Senesco, LLC is from inception through September 30, 1998.

Senesco Technologies, Inc. issued 1,700,000 shares of common stock in exchange for 100% of the outstanding interests of Senesco, LLC.
